January 2010

The beginning of a new year brings anticipation and reflection. As we remember God’s faithfulness in past experiences we find courage and assurance that He will provide and direct in the future.

In this season we are reminded of the precious treasure we have in family and friends. It has been a delight to hear from you. I have been so thankful for the beautiful greeting cards, encouraging words, and thoughtful gifts that have been sent. Words seem inadequate to express my deep appreciation.

As usual, in the January update, I like to give a brief review of last year’s activities. From January until May I was ministering in the western provinces of Canada. I was blessed to have Laetitia Marcq continuing her internship with me during that time. Her testimony brought great encouragement and blessing as we shared together in many services and venues. Several people came to Christ. There were testimonies of healing and quite a number filled with the Holy Spirit in these outreaches.

The passing of my dear mother in February brought some added challenges, but also renewed hope and purpose for eternal causes.

During the summer I had precious time with family and friends as well as several opportunities to minister locally. From September to early December I was ministering in Iceland and Belgium. I was powerfully encouraged by the results that I saw in both countries as people responded to the gospel.

Your encouragement and financial support has assisted this ministry to continue debt free. I have been blessed with a wonderful team of advisors and co-workers on the board of Inspiration Ministries. I also have two faithful women, Darlene Kienle as office manager and Leanne Simpson as secretary, both of whom keep the office running efficiently and economically.

My new book, “Joy in the Journey” is due to be released near the end of March. We will keep you informed as soon as it is available. The profits from the sale of books, CDs and other ministry materials have made it possible to continue to sponsor approximately seventy children in India, Brazil, Mexico and Haiti as well as gospel radio programming to the Muslim world, and several home missions projects.

Several months ago our webpage was completely remade. It has been beautifully done and will be regularly updated. I invite you to check it out at www.inspirationministries.net

Christelle Colant and Laetitia Marcq are progressing in their unique ministries. These dynamic young evangelists are able to reach many with the gospel. It was a great honor to mentor them and now watch as they pursue the purposes of God for their lives.

P.S.

In 2 Corinthians 9:8, we have the wonderful promise of God's sufficient grace for every situation in life. We read, "And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work" (NIV). God's grace is more than enough.
