June 2010

Dear Friends,

Praise the Lord!

The first week of May was somewhat challenging physically, but very rewarding spiritually. I traveled nearly 2000 kilometers through the northeast of Quebec in areas where I had never been before on the north shore of the mighty St. Lawrence river. In every place the people were greatly encouraged, refreshed and refilled.

On the way back, in the city of La Malbaie, I heard how the church had been earnestly praying for some time for the salvation of a local man and his wife. That evening they were in the service. How wonderful to see them both respond to Jesus. After the service, I asked them both, “Did you give the control of your life to Jesus tonight?” They both responded with a resounding “yes!” To hear that expression of newfound faith in Christ makes every kilometer worthwhile!

In southern Ontario there were several unique ministry opportunities. In London for example, besides regular outreach services, there was also a ladies brunch. Among those who were deeply touched by God’s presence was a friend who had been brought by one of the women. She earnestly prayed to give her heart to the Lord. Another young lady made a new commitment of her life to Christ.

One of the local families arranged an outreach supper for a family reunion. What a great opportunity to share the gospel!

In this month I plan to return to Saskatchewan. Having been gone for nearly five months, there will be lots of work to catch-up on, both in the office as well as outside. There will also be several ministry opportunities. How deeply I appreciate your ongoing prayer and encouragement. Here are the confirmed arrangements at this time.

As we enjoy the warm and beautiful days of summer, let us ever be mindful to let Jesus be the center, “the sunshine” of our heart.

In Christ,

P.S. The principles of the beatitudes that Jesus spoke in Matthew chapters 5, 6, and 7 are revolutionary. Every person would freely acknowledge the beauty and courage demonstrated by living with the love, fairness and forgiveness Jesus taught. We know the way of humility and repentance, of kindness, mercy and patience will always produce righteous fruit. Unfortunately too often we yield to the pride, rebellion, harshness and arrogance typical of the world’s attitudes.

May the Lord remind us daily to draw strength from Him as we seek to apply these principles. Jesus promised ultimate blessing and inheritance in the kingdom of heaven.
