August 2010

Dear Friends,

Praise the Lord!

Summer on the Canadian prairies this year has been a sort of soggy affair, with catastrophic flooding, and hungry hordes of mosquitoes. It has been disastrous for many farmers, as well as dozens of people who have lost homes and properties to the never-before-seen record amounts of rain. As we see these astonishing events, we are reminded that God is in control and the Lord's return is nearer than we think.

The month of July turned out to be far busier than I had originally planned, with several unforeseen open doors and wonderful opportunities for ministry. The whole month was filled with ministry in various places in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Veteran, AB Bible Camp

During the Family Bible Camp at Veteran, Alberta we experienced a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Over a dozen teenagers responded to give their lives to Christ, and another two dozen were powerfully baptized in the Holy Ghost. It was a tremendous experience to witness this mighty breakthrough of the power of God on these young lives.

The following week I was privileged to minister in a special outreach tent meeting in Wolseley, Saskatchewan. Together with the Daae Family musical team we could share the gospel in this town. Several unchurched adults as well as some young people responded for prayer to surrender their lives to Christ. It was a great encouragement to everyone to see great answers to prayer.

There were also unexpected invitations to minister in Bonnyville, Alberta and Rocanville, Sask. In both places it was confirmed that the Lord had directed the plans to be the right place at exactly the right time.

Now it is my privilege to help with the preparations for our annual local church tent meeting and VBS outreach. It is always a great opportunity to touch the community with the love of Jesus.

It is my hope to spend sometime in the month of August visiting family and friends as well as preparing for the European ministry tour this autumn. Your prayer support is deeply appreciated.

May the Lord continue to strengthen, encourage and direct you as you “seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.” Thank you again for your prayer and financial support.

In Christ,
Anita Pearce

P.S. In Acts 4:36, we are told that Barnabas was nicknamed, “son of consolation”, which could be easily interpreted as Mr. Encouragement. What a tremendous reputation, and reflection of this man’s character.

Society is filled with depressing situations and difficult circumstances. On every side there are voices that tear down, corrupt, destroy and discourage. Let us stand against the current and be messengers of hope in Christ. We can be the voice bringing fresh courage, and comfort from God’s promises.

May the Lord help us to also take the challenge and become known as encouragers—speaking uplifting words, performing unselfish actions, reaching out with greater empathy to those in need.
