Dear Friends,

Praise the Lord!

In the last few weeks I have passed through some of the most magnificent scenery anywhere on the planet as I ministered throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia. The trees were in full autumn splendor. The spectacular beauty of the wilderness along the famous Alaska Highway was stunning.

Gorgeous Scenery along the Alaska Highway

The ministry schedule has been very intense with services almost every night and with great travel distances between each location. How grateful I am for the Lord’s protection during these thousands of kilometers. My van faithfully ticked along without any major incidents, although I did pass other accident scenes. Many of the roads were quite desolate, with small towns far apart. It was wise to fill the gas tank at every opportunity, as one never knew when the next gas station would be!

That’s a real bear by the side of the road!

Besides services in churches almost every evening, I had the privilege to minister in various venues as well as several country gospel concerts, including one at a county fair!

The services in some of the northerly areas were jeopardized because the Stewart-Cassiar highway had been washed out and the bridges were unstable. But thankfully, just in time, we were permitted to travel in piloted convoys.

One evening as I was speaking, my attention was drawn to an older, well dressed business man. Although he was evidently enjoying the music and message, I sensed that he did not really know the Lord as his own personal Saviour. While many folks were responding for prayer at the end of the service, he and his wife quietly slipped out the door. I felt compelled to catch him.

Singing Country Gospel

As the worship team continued to sing, I ran out the door after him. There in the quiet street, I caught up to him and asked him, “Wouldn’t you give your life to Christ tonight”.

With tears running down his face he prayed with me right there on the street! I know that the power of the Holy Spirit touched his heart and he will never be the same.

The final preparations are being put into place for the ministry tour in the United Kingdom during the entire month of November. The Lord willing I will be ministering in several areas including Birmingham, in the West Midlands then to Scotland, North Yorkshire and also east London. Further details will be listed on the website as they become available. As always your prayer support is greatly appreciated.

How grateful I am for the privilege of sharing the hope we have in Christ in so many unique places. Your encouragement, prayer and financial support are so deeply appreciated. We are “labourers together”—each one of you an important piece in God’s eternal picture. May the Lord bless you and fill you with His peace.

In Christ,

Anita Pearce

P.S. Stress and panic pervade our society. The pressures of decisions and dilemmas cause discouragement and despair. The well loved hymn, “What a friend we have in Jesus” reminds us of the “peace we often forfeit and the needless pain we bear, all because we do not carry everything to God in prayer.” The wonderful promise of Hebrews 4:16 tells us that we can “...approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need” (NIV).

If your heart is heavy, troubled or distressed, take it all to Jesus. In simple prayer, lay your burdens at His feet. Then take up His promise of grace sufficient for every need.
