Sharing spiritual renewal with evangelistic focus.

Evangelist Anita Pearce

Dear Friends,

April 2024

The lengthening days assure us of the coming spring. In spite of several blasts of snow and bitter cold, the winter has been relatively mild. I have been very grateful for excellent travel conditions.

Worship service, McLennan, AB

The Lord has accomplished so much during the ministry tour across northern Alberta and British Columbia in February and March. The schedule has been quite intense with services in various venues. For example, friends rented a community center located in a central rural area. Folks gathered from several local towns and reserves nearby. There was a great awareness of the Lord's presence, particularly on the last evening. Later I was told that a heavy spiritual darkness covering the area had lifted.

Ft. St. John, BC Women's Outreach

High Level Full Gospel Assembly

Besides the special church services every weekend, there were Women's Outreaches arranged in nearly every area. Even in the smaller centers of Valleyview and McLennan, several dozen women gathered and were touched by the Lord. There was an excellent response as well for the Women's Mini-Retreat in Edson. It was thrilling to share with this vibrant and enthusiastic group for the entire weekend.

Pastor & Mrs. Oral Benrud, Ft. St. John, BC

High Level is near the border of the Northwest Territories. Every service brought a strong response. I was personally impressed with the group of young people who participated with enthusiasm in every gathering.

Pastor Benrud in Fort St. John had arranged services on four nearby First-Nation reserves. Every evening we drove to different locations to share the gospel with these precious folks. In the Sunday morning service there was a powerful sense of the Lord bringing conviction and transformation.

The village of Niton Junction has a very unique Community Cowboy Church which meets every Tuesday evening. What a privilege to share Country Gospel Music and the simple gospel message in the community center.

Only the Lord knows the hearts that have been touched and the lives changed. In every service there have been strong altar services and deep work accomplished by the Holy Spirit. Some have told me of repentance, healing and spiritual refreshing. We keep pressing forward through every open door trusting the Lord to do His work.

In Christ,
Anita Pearce

P. S. In Colossians 1:10 we read Apostle Paul's heart-felt prayer for the believers: "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God." Paul was challenging the people to seek to please the Lord in fruitfulness and hunger for the Lord.

It is not difficult to serve well those whom we love. In fact, we have a deep desire to bring them honor and respect. It brings joy to our own hearts as well when we know that others are blessed by our expressions of love and service. How much more precious to know the Lord receives with joy our worship, our obedience and our desire to please Him. We bring pleasure to our Lord and Savior as we pursue Him with our whole heart!
